Emmy's Rustic Run is a trail run and family fun day organized by Emmy's grandparents Russ & Angie Nathan and parents Dave & Ashley Liufau. We're working hard to find a cure for Emmy and all children suffering with ataxia-telangiectasia (A-T). A-T is a rare genetic disease that attacks children combining the worst symptoms of cerebral palsy, cystic fibrosis, muscular dystrophy, cancer, and immune deficiencies. Please join us for our 7th annual Rustic Run event as we continue trying to find a cure for A-T!
